

XMEDIUSFAX RELEASE 7.0 SAGEMCOM HAS TAKEN THEIR BEST OF BREED IP FAX SOFTWARE SOLUTION AND MADE IT EVEN BETTER

SAGEMCOM ANNOUNCES THEIR XMEDIUSFAX RELEASE 7.0 WILL INCLUDE MANY FREE FEATURES AND ENHANCEMENTS INCLUDING SEARCHABLE PDF'S

MONTREAL, Canada (June xx, 2012) – Sagemcom, the global leader in advanced IP fax server solutions since 2002, today announced the launch of XMediusFAX release 7.0 and that it will include a number of new core features and enhancements such as Searchable PDF's at no cost to their customers.

"The ability to offer the Searchable PDF feature as a part of the core solution gives us a substantial edge over the competition that usually charges a sizable premium to their customers" says Jean Champagne, general manager, Sagemcom Canada. "Like all our previous major software releases we based our features and enhancements on the feedback of our most important resource - our partners and customers. This made it an easy decision to provide this feature to at no cost to the end user."

As the document management and delivery industry evolves, fax must learn to adapt and prepare for upcoming innovations. With XMediusFAX Release 7.0, Sagemcom also includes web optimized enhancements (i.e. Chrome, Safari), Microsoft Office 2010 64 bit support and an ever growing list of independently certified telecom/IT/ECM platforms keeping the solution current and fully future-proofed.

This represents a huge milestone for Sagemcom in 2012 with XMediusFAX Release 7.0. In addition to their commitment to future innovations Sagemcom offers key new features such as configurable time zones, barcode routing and a unique integrated SIP Trunking support capability, once again securing their spot as one of the leading IP Fax software solutions provider across the globe.
