

SAGEMCOM SIGNALS A DESIGN REVOLUTION WITH THE NEW DECT TELEPHONE D790

April 2013

SAGEMCOM ANNOUNCES THE LAUNCH OF A NEW DECT TELEPHONE WITH AN INNOVATIVE DESIGN AND ATTRACTIVE LOOK: THE D790.

Sagemcom presents its new high-end DECT telephone: the Sagemcom D790. Following the success of the Sagemcom Sixty, the D790 retains the elegant design concept, while offering a unique look, with its sleek and slender lines. A telephone that moves away from today's telephone trends, the originality of the D790 is set to cause a sensation in homes everywhere!

In addition to its futuristic contours, the D790 features a light display on the back of the handset, which signals incoming calls. Practical and easy to use, this model has a flat backlit keypad with touch sensitive keys, phonebook capacity for 150 contacts, and a hands-free option on the handset. Being able to connect the base unit to either a modem or a traditional phone outlet also gives you the flexibility to install it anywhere you like in the house.

Following in the conceptual footsteps of its renowned predecessor in the Designer range, the D790 is the perfect complement to the Sixty Everywhere. In Duo or Trio mode, the handsets are fully compatible: shared contacts, three-way conference calling, etc.

The D790 features high-end technology with a sleek design, which is sure to satisfy even the most discerning consumer.

Available from: May 2013

Price: € 69.90
