In April 2014, Sagemcom was also selected by GrDF for the supply of more than 5 million Gazpar meters, radio modules and concentrators. Sagemcom will become one of the main suppliers of equipment for the end-to-end gas metering solution in France.

With markets earned on gas and electricity, Sagemcom is positioned on multi-energy, and improved its expertise, its technological advance and its know-how on all the multi-nergey smart meters industry, from PLC to radio technologies.

In June 2014, Sagemcom has also received ISO 27001 certification, 2013 edition, for its smart meters and all support services. ISO 2007 is the first international standard for the information security management systems.
