XMediusFAX® Achieves Certification on Alcatel-Lucent OmniPCX® release 11.1

November 18th, 2015

Certification provides Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise customers with the best FoIP solution in the market

Montreal, Canada (November 18th, 2015) – Sagemcom, a global leader in advanced fax solutions for IP networks', today announced that its cutting-edge solution, XMediusFAX® has successfully achieved compatibility certification with the Alcatel-Lucent OmniPCX® release 11.1. As a member of Alcatel-Lucent Application Partner Program (AAPP), the XMediusFAX® solution is a superior complement to the Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise solution portfolio.

ALE, operating under the brand Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise, offers a world-class business telephony environment that when integrated with XMediusFAX® allows medium, large and very large sized businesses to leverage their IP telephony infrastructure. By adding a fax component to their resources they can improve their workflow through automatic document transmission in a simple, secure and cost effective manner.

"We are very pleased that XMediusFAX® completed the compatibility certification with the latest version of the Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise Communication platform, OmniPCX®, release 11.1. The two companies have combined their skill and knowledge on numerous projects in the past. This long-term relationship is built upon our commitment to provide ALE's customers with innovative solutions; with XMediusFAX®, these customers now have a powerful and tamper-proof Fax-over-IP platform that integrates into their Unified Communication and Collaboration environments", stated Jean Champagne, General Manager of the Enterprise Solutions Department at Sagemcom Documents.
